Case Study

Finance Department Review

Client	UK Financial Services Group
The Work	The client engaged us to carry out a review of their finance department as the Chief Executive and the business managers were concerned about the effectiveness of the department and the accuracy, timeliness and relevance of reporting output.
How We Helped	A highly experienced ex-Chief Financial Officer who had worked in numerous well known and respected financial services companies was provided to carry out the review. The review covered all aspects of the department including structure, reporting and staffing competencies. A report was produced for the CEO of the client which set out what needed to be done in terms of re-structuring the department more effectively and recommended recruitment and re-assignment of staff where necessary. Executive coaching and mentoring was provided to the incumbent CFO in areas required.
Value Added	After a period of time the CFO decided to leave the company and KSC were able to provide an alternative CFO, firstly on a contract basis and after a period of six months was taken on permanently as CFO of the company.
