

KSC Launch Press Release

KINGSTON SMITH LLP LAUNCHES BUSINESS PROTECTION CONSULTANCY

Kingston Smith LLP, a top 20 accountancy firm, has established a consultancy business focused on providing business protection solutions to clients.

Kingston Smith Consulting LLP offers risk management, legal and regulatory compliance, execution of change, technology risk management, controls assurance, business continuity and third-party management solutions.

The consultancy will operate in all business sectors – particularly where there are regulatory regimes – ranging from financial services to manufacturing and gaming, and the public and private sectors. It will help with the design, build, execution and operation of solutions that will offer measurable return on investment. Moreover, clients will be able to manage these solutions themselves going forward.

Kingston Smith Consulting LLP will be led by Nick Alford, David Morrey and Mark Child. Nick was formerly chief operating officer of Morley Fund Management, while David Morrey and Mark Child were directors of group audit departments at Aviva plc.

Nick Alford commented: "We are delighted to be associated with the Kingston Smith group whose complementary service proposition will enable us to offer clients a broad range of cost-effective, sustainable solutions. These will be provided by highly experienced staff with a track record of achievement in their areas of expertise."

Michael Snyder, senior partner of Kingston Smith LLP, said: "Kingston Smith Consulting LLP is a key addition to the group and supports our desire to offer clients a comprehensive range of solutions. It complements our existing services and is an area where we expect to see growing demand, particularly in the current economic climate. Clients working with the consultancy can be assured of the usual high standards they have come to expect when working with the Kingston Smith group."

For further information, contact: Layisha Laypang, Senior PR Executive, Kingston Smith LLP, on 020 7566 3574 or email: llaypang@kingstonsmith.co.uk